Welcome TO THE Journey Inward

For more than 5,000 years, essential oil blends and botanicals have been an important part of personal wellness practices for cultures across the globe. Now it's time to experience their beneficial properties for yourself.

We traveled the world to source nature's most beneficial seeds, leaves, roots, flowers, stems, and fruits. We've studied cultures, researched extraction methods, and tested a variety of natural extracts and botanicals to ensure quality. Today, we humbly share with you the finest quality blends and essential extracts for your daily self-care. These oils will allow you to connect with your senses and to be present every day.

Uncover deeper levels of you within each bottle of Mantra Essential Oils.

Single Oils

Create an Atmosphere of the Purest Intentions

Essential oils are concentrated plant extracts and have been used for thousands of years in healing and wellness rituals. They're becoming more and more popular among people searching for a natural addition to their self-care routine. With Mantra Singles pure oil extracts, you're empowered to create an atmosphere of peace and prosperity.

Mantra Singles is a line of seven concentrated plant extracts. Each fragrance was selected for their unique properties, and undergoes rigorous testing via gas chromatography and mass spectrometry to ensure you receive only the highest quality oil extracts. Try them today, and experience essential oils with each breath you draw.

Frankincense

Boswellia serrata

Make Your Return to Peace

Extracted from the resin of the Boswellia tree, which is found in dry, mountainous regions of India, Africa and the Middle East, frankincense oil has a powerful rejuvenating fragrance that is perfect to draw on during normal daily anxieties and frustrations.

Use topically or aromatically.
